Follow "Grammy-winning lead singer of System of a Down, Serj Tankian's lifelong social activism, as he grapples with his Armenian heritage, travels the world, and uses his music to help awaken a political revolution. The film brings audiences backstage access to an international rock star whose faith in music not only revolutionized heavy metal, but also world events. Throughout his life Serj has pursued social justice, harnessing the power of his songs and celebrity for real political change. Serj's takes on American corporate greed and lambasts the corrupt regime of his homeland. Governments hate him. People love him.
