My Big Fat Armenian Family (Dir. Sevak Ohanian, 2008, Armenian w/English subtitles, 98 mins)

This low budget gritty comedy tells the laugh-filled and heartfelt story of an Armenian-American family who must learn to love and accept each other—the hard way. It explores the lifestyle and drama of a traditional Armenian-American family in an unforgettable story full of laughs and tears. Robert, the family patriarch, decides to surprise his kids with a surprise vacation, thinking it will bring his family together. But everything goes wrong as personal agendas collide into a blow-up of epic proportions!

ACOM events continue during the pandemic!
